"turning back the tide." From small beginnings in the early 1970s, Alpha has grown to become a global success. Churches from across the denominational spectrum have enthusiastically seized upon the course, seeing it as the remedy for declining church attendance. Inside Alpha explores such claims through richly grounded qualitative research on six Alpha courses. It assesses Alpha's primary aim of converting non-churchgoers and its longer-term goal of spiritual maturity (Colossians 1:28-29). It questions whether the Alpha program is as successful as it claims at uniting evangelism and discipleship, mission and spiritual formation. This is an invaluable study for those--in the academy and the church--who have an interest in ecclesiology and mission. How exactly is one to understand conversion? What is it to "be Christian"? How does ambiguity and doubt fit within one's journey of faith? The importance of this work is in discovering--through an engagement with Alpha--how people might appropriately be initiated into and disciplined within the Christian faith in contemporary culture.

Why did Jesus die? What happens when we die? Who is the Holy Spirit? How is He relevant for today? Is forgiveness possible? How should we live our lives? Help your small-group members discover the answers to these and other important questions in fifteen sessions of the Alpha course. Join the thousands of Alpha leaders worldwide who facilitate group discussion where it is safe for adults to ask their real questions about Christianity. Use this manual during your small group leader training as you prepare and lead your group of adults. Watch your own faith grow as you see others gain an understanding of the Christian faith and build friendships with fellow groups members. Contains sample questions for each session of the course. 48 pages.
