When she is captured while defending her property, it is an elf named Azlyn who comes to her rescue. His parting words reveal that her mother had been part of a rebellion seeking to unite humans and mystics; and that her death was not at the hands of his people. This shatters her perceptions of right and wrong and sparks her curiosity. Kala pursues Azlyn and their friendship grows into romance. When Azlyn believes her heritage may be the key to uniting their people, Kala begins to question everything she was raised to believe. As her people prepare for war against the mystic races, Kala's indecision threatens the lives of those she loves.
