feels about the same statements.

~~Anticipation Guide — The Teacher Toolkit~~
Construction of the anticipation guide should be as simple as possible for younger students. Write four to six statements about key ideas in the text; some true and some false. Include columns following each statement, which can be left blank or can be labeled Yes, or No (Maybe can also be used).
NOTE: Teachers may wish to create an additional column for revisiting the guide after the material has been read.

Create the Anticipation Guide by constructing a series of statements about specific items or concepts in the lesson. Either display the cover or read the opening paragraph and ask the children to answer each question with either yes, no or maybe. The emphasis is not on right answers or to make correct predictions.

the text. They can also read several statements about the key concepts presented in the text.

~~Anticipation Guide — STRATEGIES~~

Prepare a series of True/False or Agree/Disagree statements and insert them into the "Statements" column of the Anticipation Guide template, if using. These statements should be connected to the text students will be reading. Anticipation Guides are most effective when they cover topics that are controversial or debatable.
