Robert Westall ' s novel Blitzcat has remained one of my favorite books about WWII, and I enjoy each rereading. It is the story of a female black cat named Lord Gort* who travels across England during the war in 1940-41 in search of her special owner and of the people she meets along the way. It is based on the phenomenon of psi-trailing.

Robert Westall tells the story of a cat trying to find her home and her people amid the chaos of war. It is a story that could easily be a mawkish fantasy. Instead it is utterly credible throughout.
