This is a comprehensive language learning package for business executives and students. The package includes the Business Italian text, which combines language learning with a background in doing business in Italy, and two C40 cassettes which feature key vocabulary building exercises in the text. An English presenter welcomes the listener, explains how to use the cassettes, announces each unit and introduces the native speakers. These then take over and present the dialogues, articles and other comprehension passages, which relate to specific units in the book. Questions and exercises
