Mallor, Barnes, Bowers and Langvardt's: business law, 15e is appropriate for the two-term business law course. The cases in the 15th edition are excerpted and edited by the authors. The syntax is not altered, therefore retains the language of the courts. As in recent previous editions, the 15th edition includes a mix of actual AND hypothetical cases.

The most complete and credible business law text available, the Fifteenth Edition of SMITH AND ROBERSON'S BUSINESS LAW by Richard A. Mann and Barry S. Roberts continues a long tradition of accuracy, thoroughness, and consistent coverage of the latest issues and emerging trends. This updated classic delivers a comprehensive, detailed presentation of business law topics that reflect AACSB guidelines. The cases located at the end of each chapter offer an excellent mix of landmark and current decisions which are edited to preserve much of the language of the court. The placement of these gives you complete flexibility, allowing you to skip selected cases easily or opt for a true black-letter-law

Upon its publication in 1963, Corley's Legal Environment of Business was the first and only business law textbook to emphasize public rather than private law, government regulation of business rather than contracts, and legal relationships rather than business transactions. A major innovation, it established a new course that the authors termed the legal environment of business. Over the years others have attempted to attain the success and stature of The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, but none has been able to match its timely, innovative coverage. Substantially updated, the 10th
