Chapter 7: Research design. As stated in the introduction, the research design adopted in this inquiry was primarily influenced by Guba and Lincoln's (1985) conception of Naturalistic Inquiry, which they later acknowledged was a form of Constructivism (Guba and Lincoln, 1998), and to a lesser extent Charmaz's (2006) constructivist conception of Grounded Theory.

In this chapter, we provide an overview of experimental design options available to linguistics researchers, as well as a brief overview of mixed methods, an increasingly common option for investigating complex research questions. The discussion reviews general principles in experimental design, with examples from a selection of subfields.
