It is still morning, always a delicate time for me, when Gobby rings up a call centre. I know this because he puts it on speaker. I soon learn it is experiencing an unusually high number of calls right now and Gobby might like to try its internet site www.somethingorother.com. Gobby just leaves it on speaker while he gets on with another task.

During the Call & Contact Centre Expo in London we invited visitors to confess their calls in our Natterbox. This could be as a call centre agent or on the receiving end of a call. Very interesting viewing, providing us with a clear insight into how customers feel about their suppliers and how agents feel about the lack of technology to support them in their roles.
