The Mossberg 500 has been around, in various guises and barrel lengths, for many years. While other makes and designs have fallen out of production, the Mossberg has survived. As the years have passed, there has been no revolution in its design, but small, subtle improvements – some unseen – to aid the efficiency of its manufacture.

Mossberg 500 pump-action shotgun - a functional and ...

Mossberg 500 and 590 are variants of the same series of shotguns. But, with a few variations. Barrels from a standard Mossberg 500 won't work with a 590. The 590 features a thicker barrel compared to the 500. Plus the means of attachment of the barrel to the receiver is different on each of these shotguns. It is still possible - but is very involved and not recommended. Can a Mossberg 500 ...
