Fall From Grace (Mad World #1) (3) An enormously chiseled looking man stood inside the opening of the bar and winked at me as I walked in. A bright red STAFF shirt clung to his body as if it was painted on; his expression looked like he wanted me for dinner. Too arrogant. However, that didn't stop me from wondering if he'd thought I'd be a main course or just an appetizer.

When I saw that the sequel to Fall From Grace (Mad World) was out, I one clicked it, and stopped reading what I had been reading. I loved Fall from Grace due the sarcastic humour, witty banter and intense chemistry between Grace and Shane, I just had to know where the author would next take them. Initially I was quite disappointed in Saving Grace.
