Finn MacCool and the Giant's Causeway Must Know Stories ...

In most documentation in Irish Mythology, Finn MacCool is not a giant but a hero. As far as I can see, the Giant's Causeway is the only story portraying him as such (although you cannot rule out the possiblity that Irish Mythology stories of Finn McCool and the Fianna were mixed with Cúchulainn and the champions of the Red Branch). It was noted in 1888 that Irish Pagan Gods grew smaller in the popular imagination to become fairies.
