This book differs from the previous Emmy stories. This book combines Emmy's present life with her efforts at writing a book about her life. "But God! I write songs! Are you sure? I don't know if I can do that." She paused again and listened. "Okay, in Psalms 28:7, it says 'The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him and he helps me. My heart leaps for joy, and with my song I praise him.' My song, Lord. That's what I do. I write songs, not what you are asking." She closed her eyes and wept until Philippians 4:13 popped into her head. "I can do all this through him who gives me strength." She sighed and took a deep breath. "Fine! I won't fight

"Of course not," she said. "But this is crazy." He tilted his head. "What? And why would you fight God?" "Because I'm stubborn and because of what He wants me to do." "What is He asking you to do?" She raised her hands. "The Holy Spirit told me to write a book." "A book? Are you sure? You write songs." She looked up at Kenny, and he saw the sparkle in her eyes. Kenny let go of her hands. "What will you do?" She shrugged. "I'll do what He told me to. I don't know what good it will do, but I'll do it. I'll write a book about my life. Like anyone will want to read that." She laughed. The book is divided into three (3) sections which give glimpses of Henry Elijah Clarke under different headings: —Part 1 – Henry the Writer and Singer —Part 2 – Henry the Farmer —Part 3 – Henry the Poet The first song in Part 1, “Christ’s Solid Love”, was written in commemoration of the opening of a new Church in Mineral Heights, May Pen, Clarendon. This was the beginning of what became his writing and singing career. Songs such as “Bound for the City with Cloudless Skies,” “My Empty World”, “Lord Go before Us”, “O What Pleasure Divine” all expressed my father’s deep desire to be with his Lord in Heaven. The song “My Savior’s Voice”, gives us the assurance that we have a Savior in Heaven who paid the price for our sins. He did this when He sealed the deal on Calvary by His death on the farmer by profession. He had what we call in Jamaica a “green thumb.” Everything he planted, germinated and grew. He knew how to make the best use of every little space in his yard. The songs in Part 2, were written to commemorate my father’s achievements as he received trophies and prizes for the best backyard garden in his community on a number of occasions. In Part 3, his debut poem was, “Roadblock with the Roaring Lion” and is based on I Peter 5:8. He was very much aware that this roadblock with the devil was one every Christian must experience in their daily walk with the Lord. He ended this discourse with the roaring lion on a note of triumph when he wrote: “A DELIVERANCE TIME NOW, DEFEATED LION, MI NO TELL YU
