Ares, the god of war, is exiled from Olympus and forced to live in the human world. With his absence in Olympus and with the war on earth, Hades decides it is his time to take over all the known worlds. With his massive, indestructible army, Hades starts his conquest of the earth, but there is still a small hope that he can be stopped. Ares holds the key to victory, but he is unaware of that fact in his exile. He joins the war on earth as a mortal, but is soon dragged into the war in heaven. Only Ares can end the war, and he starts his journey towards self-redemption but it may already be too late for the gods.
