Harman Kardon SoundStick II and III Specification. From the specification, there is nothing interesting as well because when you read the sheet, it seems like either of them are a mediocre speaker which can be deceiving in real life experience. They are still having the same frequency response range from 44Hz to 20kHz.

SoundSticks are multimedia speakers sold by Harman Kardon, originally co-developed with Apple Inc. They were released in July 2000. They are a 2.1 system with a pair of satellite speakers and a subwoofer called the iSub, which was originally available first in October 1999 as a standalone product. They were designed by Jony Ive and have received numerous accolades for their industrial design. Harman Kardon released updated versions in 2004, 2009, 2012 and 2020.
