sudden death, he returns home to the family's dairy farm. During his stay, he discovers his mother's struggle with finances and his younger sister's struggle with grief. Concern for his family presses Logan to make the difficult decision to leave his career as a pastor and stay on the farm. As a way to make some extra money, he agrees to board the teacher for their local school. Karen Millerson arrives from Chicago ready to teach high school but her position is eliminated so she accepts the role of country school teacher. Eager to put her family's ugly past behind her, Karen begins a new career to
