Instead we should use adjectives, to describe ourselves (people are nouns) instead of the verb itself. That's why we say \"I am hungry\" instead of \"I am hungrily\" and \"I feel happy\" instead of \"I feel happily.\" Another issue with the verb \"to feel\" is that it has another, more literal definition: to touch with your hands.

I Am is an organisation dedicated to nurturing positive mental well-being of children in need of care and protection. It believes every child deserves access to the protective factors to help them develop into a well-adjusted individual of the society. I Am addresses the need to nurture the hearts of children at risk through training caregivers and mental health professionals, providing trauma focused intervention and conducting research on behalf of the needs of children at risk.

I am going to use that feeling of empowerment to rethink what I look like when I am well. Perhaps this is too ambitious for now, but I feel I can apply this to specific areas of my life. Two come to mind, and I have started a page for each one: What I am like at work when I am well; What I am like as a husband when I am well
