By (author) A.R. Gurney. Share. FINALIST FOR THE PULITZER PRIZE FOR DRAMA In such critically acclaimed plays as The Dining Room and The Cocktail Hour, A. R. Gurney has wittily captured the manners of upper-middle-class WASP America, but never as gracefully or with such dazzling economy as in Love Letters. Tracing the lifelong correspondence of the staid, dutiful lawyer Andrew Makepeace Ladd III and the lively, unstable artist Melissa Gardner, the story of their bittersweet relationship ...

'Love Letters'| a Curtainup Broadway revival Review

I love you more than any life challenge that could appear between us. I love you more than all of that, and I love you the most. If it weren't for you, my love, my one true lady love, life wouldn't be so beautiful. As the candle fills the darkness with tender light, you enlighten my life with hope and love.

The piece is comprised of letters exchanged over a lifetime between two people who grew up together, went their separate ways, but continued to share confidences. As the actors read the letters aloud, what is created is an evocative, touching, frequently funny but always telling pair of character studies in which what is implied is as revealing and meaningful as what is actually written down.
