There is a small difference between Plus Size Models and Curvy Models. Plus Size Models are models that are a little above the "normal" fashion model sizes, i.e. Plus Size Models are women who have a clothing size of 38 or 40 (EU). Plus Size models can do a great job because more women can identify with them as they do with high fashion models. As a Plus Size Model you can therefore not only work for fashion customers, but also in advertising.
