Reflections on the Revolution in France is a political pamphlet, published in 1790. It was written by Edmund Burke , who offers a strong criticism of the French Revolution. His pamphlet is a response to those who agreed with the revolution and saw it as representing a new era of liberty and equality.

Reflections On the Revolution In France Summary | GradeSaver

Reflections on the Revolution in France (1790) began by dismissing comparisons between the French Revolution and the 1688 revolution in England, claiming that the 'Glorious Revolution' of 1688 was no more than an adjustment of the constitution. The French Revolution in comparison was tending towards anarchy rather than reformation.
