Sinjin by H.P. Mallory, is a spin off series that comes from the Jolie Wilkins universe. Told from the perspective of Bryn, this first installment seems to act as a bridge between the Mallory's old series and her new one. Bryn was taken captive at the end of the last Jolie book, and is now living under guard at her sister's manor.

I thought the SINJIN SINCLAIR series would be told from Sinjin's point of view, but turns out it's from Jolie's twin sister, Bryn's. And strangely, I wasn't disappointed in the first novel, SINJIN. I give it 3.5 stars, only for the skipped ahead to ending.

Cool, calm and calculated, Sinjin Sinclair is everything Bryn imagines she should find reprehensible in a man. First of all, he's a master vampire and all vampires, in Bryn's mind, are nothing more than bloodsucking parasites. Secondly, his unflagging cockiness when paired with his boyish charm is enough to irritate any sensible woman. ...
