~~Skellig — Wikipedia~~

Skellig was the only book on the list I hadn't read, and the children and their teacher gave it such a glowing review that I thought I should (I've read one other David Almond book - Clay, which I thought was very good.) Skellig Michael consists of approximately 22 hectares (54 acres) of rock, with its highest point, known as the Spit, 218 m (714 ft) above sea level. The island is defined by its twin peaks and intervening valley (known as Christ's Saddle), which make its landscape steep and inhospitable.
