The Twelfth Of Never is thus an album with a "twang", as Manteca's witty leader, percussionist Matt Zimbel, puts it. Manteca the tune is a throbbing embodiment of how Afro-Cuban rhythm invests jazz with added firepower. But Manteca the band keeps the flames under control, which may have much to do with the number of its personnel – nine.

Until the twelfth of never, I'll still be loving you. Hold me close, never let me go. Hold me close, melt my heart like April snow. I'll love you till the bluebells forget to bloom; I'll love you till the clover has lost its perfume. I'll love you till the poets run out of rhyme, Until the twelfth of never and that's a long, long time.
