Sarah Bird's latest novel, The Gap Year, is a must-read for anyone who loves mother-daughter stories. Cam Lightsey, a lactation consultant in the homogenous world of Texan suburbia, is attempting to prepare her daughter Aubrey for the next step after high school. The pushing-from-the-nest does not exactly go as planned, which Bird reveals through two simultaneously unfolding storylines.

Sarah Bird novel 'The Gap Year' Hits a Nerve With Empty ...

"The Gap Year" is a delight. It's so rare to find a book that gets both sides of a story right--a mother and her teenage daughter in an eventful year. It's funny, and sad, and most of all very true. You may think you know where the story is going, but you don't. If you don't know Sarah Bird's books, this is a good place to start.
