The story behind the stories here is that Dr John Watson and his wife are now dead and the good Dr has left behind 3 deed boxes which contain the tales told here. Lost Stories feels very much like a true Sherlock Holmes collection and this is helped by the illustrations which look very much like those in the publications of the time SH was originally published.

The beauty of the Sherlock Holmes stories is that you're sure to find one with a tone that appeals to you; there's quite a range on a scale that runs from fun and playful to dark and twisted. This story falls on that latter end of things and offers a darker glimpse into Doyle's mind than we get in most of the other stories.
