The most complete and current edition of Dylan Thomas' collected poetry in a beautiful gift edition celebrating the centenary of his birth

Thomas' lyrical prologue introduces this collection of his complete and unfinished poems and early works.

The most complete and current edition of Dylan Thomas' collected poetry in a beautiful gift edition celebrating the centenary of his birth The reputation of Dylan Thomas (1914-1953) as one of the greatest poets of the twentieth century has not waned in the fifty years since his death. A Welshman with a passion for the English language, Thomas's singular poetic voice has been admired and imitated, but never matched. This exciting, newly edited annotated edition offers a more complete and representative collection of Dylan Thomas's poetic works than any previous edition. Edited by leading Dylan Thomas scholar John Goodby from the University of Swansea, The Poems of Dylan Thomas contains all the poems that appeared in Collected Poems 1934-1952, edited by Dylan Thomas himself, as well as poems from the 1930-1934 notebooks and poems from letters, amatory verses, occasional poems, the verse film script for \"Our Country,\" and poems that appear in his \"radio play for voices,\" Under Milk Wood. Showing the broad range of Dylan Thomas's oeuvre as never before, this new edition places Thomas in the twenty-first century, with an up-to-date introduction by Goodby whose notes and annotations take a pluralistic approach.

Presents poems compiled by the author as representations of his best work, including the poems \"In The Beginning\" and \"Vision and Prayer.\"

A prologue in verse, written shortly before the poet's death, augments this collection of all the poems which Dylan Thomas himself wished to preserve.

Contains all of the poems which Thomas wished to preserve.

Dylan Thomas (1914-53) was born in Swansea and won wide acclaim for his often declamatory and rhetorical work of the 1940s, which included Deaths and Entrances (1946). He died from alcoholism shortly before the airing of his most famous work, Under Milk Wood (1954), and the Sorbonne, and has held journalistic and academic appointments in London and New York. A member of Aosdana, he has received numerous awards including the Irish Academy of Letters Award and the Scott Moncrieff translation prize. His Collected Poems was published in 1999. past or present whom they have particularly admired.
