The adorable stick figures in this book get into a whole mess of situations. You follow the skinny little characters as they learn about willpower and "making it happen." Basically, The Skinny on Willpower, How to Develop Self Discipline is a great lesson on self-discipline and willpower told in a story format. You'll find lessons, bullet points, and quotes throughout the book as well.

The Skinny on Willpower: How to Develop Self Discipline ...

Willpower is proportionally related to motivation and I have written extensively about this in some of my previous articles. By the way, this series of books is called the Skinny On because it uses stick figures to create scenarios where you can visualize the concepts that they are teaching you. Sort of like a very simplistic comic strip.

The Skinny on Willpower by Jim Randel, Review

Willpower is not something you're born with. It's developed over time. One way to build willpower is with a practice of graded exposure. Graded exposure is a logical, step-by-step approach for achieving willpower. For example, let's say you have a real problem with sweets. You just love donuts, and yet you know you have to stop eating them.
