But he had a tenderness for them.

John 11:35-36, when he found out that Lazarus was dead, he stopped what he was doing in his busy schedule of itinerate messianic preaching among the people of God so that he could go,
just to see his friend miles away.

Jesus had a tenderness in his heart.

And there he is at the tomb of Lazarus.

novella in the Fostered by Love series;
good characters, interesting story- to me it wasn't as good as the first two books- but the supporting characters held it together. 2 people found this

The words from the first reading from the prophet Isaiah is filled with tenderness of God's love for us.

These are words of healing, words of hope for the future. They show just how deeply God loves us and is concerned for our welfare. God's words today are like a healing balm for your soul and are very comforting.

At first thought, the idea of studying the tenderness of Jesus' love seems almost a pointless exercise. After all, which of us doesn't believe that his love was tender? Surely we don't have to be convinced of this fact. The Gospels record many stories that depict a selfless and tender love in the actions of Jesus.

The Tenderness of His Love This week we have the tremendous privilege to study the tenderness of God's love. Sabbath's lesson seems to equate compassion with "genuine love," and while compassion is certainly a part of love, God's love is far more. Matthew 4:23 tells us that Jesus Christ had a teaching, healing, preaching ministry.
