The wedding planners daughter is one of my favorite series. The books follow a young girl named Willa, named after a willow tree, and her single mother who is obviously a wedding planner. Throughout this story, we see Willa grow up, get closer to her mother, and be accepting of having another person in her mother's life.

Most fathers and daughters share a special bond from the moment a daughter is born. So, aside from the first dance between the newlyweds, the father and daughter dance is a must in your wedding program flow to tug on your guests' heartstrings during the reception.. As a country with strong family-oriented traits, the father-daughter dance has become a staple in traditional wedding receptions.
