~~To Bless the Space Between Us~~ — ~~Sounds True~~

The following piece is an excerpt from a book called, To Bless the Space Between Us, by Irish poet, philosopher, author, and priest, John O'Donohue. In 2008 he died, unexpectedly in his sleep, at 52 years old. His death was a huge loss to the world. I want to share his words about what it means to move from one experience to another, to cross into new ways of being, what it means to end one thing and begin another and ultimately what it means to trust in the possibility that each new ...

It is the space we create for one another that allows love to be like sunlight to a flower, not like a tree to the plants that grow beneath.
The role of love, human and Divine, is, in the lovely phrase of Irish poet John O'Donohue, "to bless the space between us".
