John Rollo Period 3 Where Eagles Dare by: Alistair MacLean The story Where Eagles Dare started off a bit slow for me, but as the story went on, the action really kicked in. The story begins with a problem, an important American general is being held hostage in a secret Gestapo facility by the SS.

Where Eagles Dare by Alistair MacLean - Goodreads

The basis for one of "his" most successful movies, 1967's Where Eagles Dare sees Alistair MacLean returning to a World War II setting. MacLean's service with the Royal Navy had given him an insider perspective of that war - experience that served him well in earlier works such as The Guns of Navarone. Its dramatic depiction of breathless action amid breathtaking surroundings made Where Eagles Dare a natural candidate for filming; in fact, MacLean wrote the screenplay even as he worked on the ...

Where Eagles Dare | Alistair MacLean

Review of the 1968 movie Where Eagles Dare, based on the Alistair MacLean novel. Where Eagles Dare (1968) Having just re-read the book on which it is based, I especially enjoyed the film Where Eagles Dare, made in 1968 but released in '69. That's largely because the film hews closely to the book's plot – no surprise, since Alistair MacLean wrote the book and the movie screenplay simultaneously!
