Marvin was raised by parents that are passionate for God. In his childhood, he was exposed to several people that were themselves examples of true disciples. In High School, he stopped struggling against the tug of God and became a follower of Jesus. Out of his love for God he has been a worship leader for many years. In the winter of 2016 God began to stir his heart to a deeper walk. In February of 2017 he resigned his position as Worship Pastor to take sabbatical for the refreshment of his body and spirit. It was the preface to what he and his wife have dubbed, " the year of the unexpected " . In the summer of 2017, Marvin began an intentional pursuit of God that would eclipse his previous efforts at discipleship. This is the diary of his walk, originally intended for his children, but at their urging, for any that

You are designed for success. How can you achieve this success? The answer is straightforward: success comes as a result of few, simple, well-designed habits practised and repeated every day. So why doesn't everybody just do it? The answer is obvious, yet profound, according to John Rohn: it is because the things that are easy to do are also easy not to do. Does this book have the answers to all your life challenges? No! What this book will do is provoke you to think deeper and spur you to immediate, intelligent action. The message in this book is simple: be careful not to neglect doing the small things in your life that make the big things happen. Nothing will change unless you change. Blow the Cap off your Capability is a success and motivational toolbox with practical ideas and wisdom to help change your mindset and motivate you to prompt action so you can achieve your goals and live your best life beginning from right now. The chapters in this book are arranged in alphabetical order, covering a wide range of topics such as attitude, boundaries, comfort-zones, confidence, failure, integrity, leadership, procrastination, relationships and more. Some quotes from this book: Put your eggs in one basket and - watch that basket! (Andrew Carnegie) Success is not what you achieve, it's what you attract by the person you have become. (Jim Rohn) The secret to your success is found in your daily routine. (John Maxwell) The elevator to success is out of order, but the stairs is always open (Zig Ziglar) Jump, then grow wings on the way down. (Jack Canfield)

Filled with exhortations and illustrations, it teaches the art of effective praying--which will result in revival. Moody Monthly said, "This is a plea for praying that will melt the preacher's heart, move the people, and magnify the Lord Jesus."

Spiritual endowment for today's believer is possible. This possibility is studied and compared to that of the early church fathers. This journey to the reception of Holy Spirit endowment of the early Pentecostal forefather was not short and instantaneous. There is a waiting period that is observed and reported. This book revisits the biblical significance of tarry's treatment in Luke 24:49. The key principle of waiting on the timing of God's provision of "power" was commanded. The promised endowment is necessary to accomplish the job description God has given all Christians. The reader will observe the results of a tarry presented to encounter the Holy Spirit experience. The word for power that Luke uses in Luke 24:49 and Acts 1:8 reference "that ability to do work." Acts 1:4 placed emphases on them not leaving Jerusalem without the promise. The potential value of this topic is in its impact on the reader's personal life. The project conducts a hundred surveys, interviews, and research of historical tarry data. The successful tarry, as Luke presents it, will yield an authentic encounter with the promised Holy Spirit, and the production of guidelines for Christian mentors to tarry for endowment.

We need to recover a truth that has been all but lost in modern-day Christianity. It has been buried for too long, and it is too valuable to be forgotten. This life-changing truth is that the heart is the key to everything in the Christian life. The heart is the wellspring of all our actions, emotions, motives, and character. Everything we are, everything we say, and everything we do flows directly from the heart. In The Heart—The Key to Everything in the Christian Life, believers will discover how the heart is central to spiritual growth and how it will help us better reflect the image of Christ in a fallen world. The heart is the key to our service and obedience to the Father. The heart is the key to the purity and depth of our worship, praise, and love of God. It is time the Christian church once again teaches a proper understanding of the heart so that we can fully embrace and manifest the life of Christ within us.

Learn how to access heaven and release it into the earth! Jesus disciples heard every message, witnessed every miracle and deliverance and healing and we dont see one recorded time where they asked Him, Teach us to preach, or Teach us to heal, or Teach us to deliver. After spending three and a half years with the Son of God in the flesh, they cried out to Him, We want Your prayer life Teach Us to Pray! They understood that Jesus public life of ministry was the result of His private life of prayer with the Father. Its in light of this reality that we must begin to shift all of our discipleship and training of the next generation. We are living in turbulent days, therefore we must get back to the foundational realities of intimate connection with heaven. We must come out of the swirl of noise and busyness and distraction and reconnect to heaven so that we will see heavens invasion into the earth. Corey Russell has given himself to 30-plus hours of prayer a week for the last 20 years, and longs to take the lessons he has learned through all the seasons of life and impart them to as many as will receive. Discover how: To tune out the noise, distractions, and busyness of our culture and cultivate hours at the feet of Jesus To allow the Lord to remove all of the props we build our lives on and hear His voice To ascend to the throne of God and see His power manifested in our families, our circumstances, and our world To persevere in prayer when you hit walls of resistance To be sent with authority and power and compassion into the world around you To build a life of consistent prayer that hosts the anointing of prayer To go from being an echo of someone elses message to becoming a voice in your generation To develop a deeper intimacy with the Holy Spirit Teach Us to Pray will ignite your prayer life from one that is filled with boredom into one that is filled with power!

To adequately present the message of the Kingdom in the midst of a perverse generation, we must study and apply ourselves. But knowledge alone is not enough; wisdom, understanding and discernment are also required to effectively minister God's Word. From her decades of ministry experience, Dr. Glories Powell shares practical tools for ministers of the Gospel. In this handbook you will find research techniques, sermon designs, ministry protocol, prophetic insights, and revelation on several doctrinal truths. Before we expect the power of God's Word to change lives, we must first allow the Holy Spirit to work through us. After more than 25 years of experience in ministry and a doctorate in theology, Dr. Powell has learned enough to know that there is much more to learn! Because a preacher or evangelist must model their message and live what they teach, this handbook was passionately written for those seeking to become skilled in presenting the Word of God.
